ADAIR LOOKS GOOD

HELM TALKS TO APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE MONDAY

Follows Ed Morrow at Columbia And Shows Beyond Doubt Why Wilson Should Be Re-elected

Congressman Harvey Helm returned Tuesday morning from Columbia, Adair county, where he spoke to a large crowd Monday. It was court day and voters were there from the far ends of the county. Hon. Edwin P. Morrow had the call on the court house, he having been advertised to speak there for nearly a month. Mr. Morrow spoke, after a lengthy introduction by Judge Wallace Jones and made what Mr. Helm termed "a creditable republican speech." He was not abusive nor did he ridicule the opposing party, as so many of the republican spellbinders do. He touched on the Mexican situation, and declared that President Wilson should have declared war on Germany for sinking the Lusitania. He was without doubt forgetful that Congress, and not the president, calls the country to war, and this being the case, some big republican leader might have introduced a resolution calling for war. But this was not done, as all know.

The republicans listened well to Mr. Morrow's remarks, but they were evidently not in a humor for applauding as that demonstration was conspicuous by its absence. Mr. Morrow's discussion of the tariff was what might have been expected of a republican speaker—they all claim to want a high protective tariff.

At the conclusion of his speech, Mr. Morrow left for Lebanon where he was billed to speak that evening. He insisted on the crowd remaining to hear Mr. Helm and it did so and was well repaid for so doing.

Congressman Helm was introduced by County Attorney Gordon Montgomery, a close relative of Hon. C. F. Montgomery, of Liberty. Mr. Montgomery led his relative's fight in Adair in August but he is just as warm for Mr. Helm now as he was for Senator Montgomery then. His speech was splendidly received and from what can be gathered, he really outdid himself. Mr. Helm found his hearers most responsive and he admits that he never spoke to a more courteous audience. His references to Mr. Wilson were vociferously applauded, many of the republicans joining in the cheering. Congressman Helm declared that the re-election of President Wilson means continued peace and prosperity and that now, above all others, is the time to consider the man. He told of the achievements of the party under democratic rule and said that four years more of it would put the country in such shape that the people would want the democrats in power for all time hence. After he had concluded his remarks, many of his hearers gathered to shake his hand and pledge their support to him and the entire democratic ticket in November. Quite a number of former Progressives were among those who extended warmest congratulations.

Mr. Helm was greatly pleased with the day's work and feels that it was a regular field day for democracy. He thinks that Adair county is in better shape from a democratic standpoint than it has been since it was placed in the Eighth congressional district, and he expects good reports from there in November.

The War Last Week

Teutonic allies were assailed from every direction during the week and, aside from occasional claims from Berlin and Vienna that attacks in certain quarters had failed, reports made a story of almost unbroken progress for the entente allies.

On the Saloniki front, where the troops of nearly all the entente allies are fighting, the British crossed the Struma River and attacked Bulgarians, withdrawing a few days later, but Servians continued an offensive in Macedonia and reported important gains. Bulgars were also said to be retreating from Greece, invaded with some success a few weeks ago, and likewise abandoning Varna, their principal port on the Black Sea.

Rumanians continued their offensive against Austrians in Transylvania, forcing the enemy to retreat, this result being admitted by Vienna.

Russian progress in the Carpathian region was not disputed, but Berlin claimed to have checked their advance toward Lemberg from the southeast. The Muscovites also made headway in their operations against the Bulgarians in conjunction with Rumanian forces.

On the west front the French and English armies reported highly important successes, the former having cut the Bapaume-Peronne road, constituting a vital line of communication for the Germans. This advantage was strengthened by the taking of German trenches near Comblès. Violent counter attacks by the Teutons were reported to have been repulsed.

Italian armies operating on the Trentino front announced important gains.

A council of war by notables of the Teutonic allies was held, the Kaiser being in attendance, as was the King and Crown Prince of Bulgaria.

Developments in Greece tending to hasten the formal entry of that country into the struggle on the side of the entente allies.

New armored war cars that belch destruction and move unhampered by mounds, stumps or craters led the way in the British drive in the Somme Friday, which resulted in one of the most extensive strokes of the offensive, and gave the Germans a startling surprise. The juggernauts penetrated to third-line trenches.

The Latest

The British line has advanced 1000 yards on a mile front and captured a powerfully fortified German work called the "Quadrilateral." South of Comblès, on the Somme front, the French have carried another group of German trenches. Desperate fighting continues around Denicourt, while actions both in the Champagne district and on the Verdun front, where the French captured a trench on Deadman Hill, are recorded.

French forces have captured the important city of Florina in Macedonia and all Bulgarians are retiring in disorder toward Monastir.

JOHN NEVIUS HURT ON TRAIN

John B. Nevius, son of Mrs. Mattie Nevius, of this city, was knocked off a freight train upon which he was braking near Brodhead last week and sustained injuries which laid him up for a short time. Mr. Bagby is a native of that South American republic, his father having been the first missionary sent to Brazil by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1881. The young man has been taking a course in Richmond College, Richmond, Va., preparing himself to become a medical missionary.

SCOTT—ALEXANDER

Miss Morten Scott, a most attractive young lady of the Cedar Creek section and B. W. Alexander, of Irvine, Estill county, took their many friends by surprise when they drove to Stanford Saturday and were united in matrimony's holy bonds by Rev. W. D. Welburn, of the Methodist church. They were accompanied by the bride's sister, Miss Fannie Scott and Paul Noland, who were witnesses at the wedding. Soon afterward they took a train for Irvine to make their home. The bride is the daughter of Walter Scott, a well known farmer of the Cedar Creek section, and is very popular and attractive. The groom is a prominent young farmer of Estill county. A host of loved ones and friends extend heartiest congratulations and good wishes.

DANVILLE COURT DAY.

About the average crowd attended Danville court Monday, but business generally was slow. Only a few cattle were on the market and they were picked up quickly. A small bunch of heifers brought 6 1-2 cents, a few steers 7 cents, and some butcher stuff went at 5 to 5 1-2 cents. The mule market was very quiet, only a few selling. Prices ranged from $130 to $176. Several war horses were bought around the $100 mark. A number of engagements of mule colts were made at $60 to $90.

Local Men "Touched"

Pickpockets Rob Judge Bailey And Geo. C. Givens at State Fair

Several Stanford visitors to the big State Fair at Louisville received a trifle more than a "cordial welcome" to the city. They were completely "taken in." Mr. George C. Givens, on the Hubble pike, was "touched" for his pocketbook containing $12 while County Judge Jas. P. Bailey, was "jostled" and his pocketbook containing about $40 in cash and several hundred dollars in warrants, was removed from his pocket. These warrants will be of little value to the thief, however, as Lincoln county at present has no money with which to pay them and should an effort be made to cash them, a clew might be furnished to the pickpocket. Judge Bailey reported his loss to the Louisville police and the Post had the following item about the theft: "J. P. Bailey, of Stanford was the victim of a pickpocket at the State fair grounds on Thursday night. Money and papers amounting to $885.50 was taken from him. As he was passing out of the door of the pavilion where the horse show was in progress, he was jostled about and a moment later discovered the loss of his wallet. The articles taken from him are a wallet containing $40 in cash, three certificates for $250 each on the treasury of Lincoln county, one certificate on the state of Kentucky for $57, a note for $20.15 and other valuable personal papers. The loss was reported in person to the police department by Mr. Bailey."

Looks Good In Pulaski

Chairman Joe H. Gibson In Stanford En Route from State Fair.

Col. Joe H. Gibson, of Somerset, passed through Stanford in his auto Saturday afternoon, returning from the State Fair at Louisville. He was accompanied by his friend, John W. Whinnery, of East Orange, N. J. Col. Gibson has just been appointed Campaign Chairman for the Democratic fight this fall in Pulaski county, though for some reason or other, the Somerset Journal persists in insisting that one Joseph Rowe, former policeman at Burnside is the chairman. No finer selection for the place could have been made than that of Col. Gibson, who has led winning fights before, and is backed by the active, working democrats of Pulaski county almost to a man. He has a wide reputation over the county, knows how to organize and will come nearer than any other man to breaking in the rock-ribbed republican majority down there. The best thing the Journal can do is to come out and support Chairman Gibson like a man. The political column of the Cincinnati Enquirer Sunday told the following about the chairmanship tangle in Pulaski: Joseph A. Gibson, of Somerset, banker, has upon application of a host of Democrats in his home town and county been appointed by Chairman Cantrill Campaign Chairman for Pulaski county, and it is said that the democrats under his leadership are building a strong organization for the fight in the home of Edwin P. Morrow. It was announced that Joseph Rowe, of Burnside, had been selected by the Pulaski County Committee for Campaign Chairman, but this developed to have been incorrect, since there was no certification to the state headquarters that there had ever been a quorum present upon call for a meeting of the committee. Chairman Cantrill sent a representative to Somerset to ascertain the facts and following his report upon the situation he asked the Democrats of the county to say whom they desired for Chairman. Gibson was named.

DEATH OF MR. PAT MCGIRR. Early Wednesday morning the community was shocked by the sudden death of Mr. Pat McGirr, at his home on the Danville and Hustonville pike. About 4:30 a. m., he was stricken with apoplexy and only lived a few hours. The end came peacefully at 9:30. He was born in Pennsylvania May 15, 1843, and had been a resident of Lincoln county for 43 years, where he has many friends, for to know "Uncle Pat" was to be his friend. He is survived by a wife, who, before her marriage was Miss Liza Kuffman, and two sons, William and James, besides a host of friends, who will mourn the loss of a patient and kind husband and father, and a peaceable neighbor. Funeral services were conducted at the home Thursday at 1:30, by Rev. J. Q. Montgomery, after which the remains were laid peacefully to rest in the Junction City cemetery.—A Friend.

Moreland.

The pupils of the Bellview Public and Graded school at Moreland will give a very interesting and pleasant entertainment at the school on Friday evening, September 22nd, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The program has been very thoughtfully arranged and promises to entertain in the most pleasing manner. The "Hoosier School," represents one 50 years ago and is full of pranks and fun. A small admission of 10c and 15c will be charged and a large crowd is expected. The program will be as follows:

Song—Kentucky Schools, Chorus. Welcome Address—Francis Timberlake.

Recitation—"Little Boys Lament" Clayton Ellis.

Playlet—"The Months," 12 girls. Recitation—"My Troubles," Mart Owens.

Broom Drill—8 girls. Recitation—"Be Polite," Henry E. Pruitt.

Dialogue—"Taking Census," Josephine Myers, Wesley Gilmer. Reading—"Talk Over Phone," Lottie Merriman.

Play—"Hoosier School," 10 pupils. Song—Misses Fields and Peavyhouse.

Pantomime—"My Faith Look Up to Thee," Girls.

Our school, which is taught by Prof. Walter Moser and Miss Mary Peavyhouse, is crowded. In Miss Peavyhouse's room there are in some cases three pupils occupying the same seat. The attendance at our school, based on the census for this year, has broken all records. The attendance speaks well for the district. Regular attendance means much for the pupils, and the teachers can accomplish so much more in so many ways.

This record attendance is not only pleasing to the teachers, but the trustees share the pleasure and are proud of the record of the Moreland school. We have been hoping that the Lincoln County Board of Education would be able to have erected an additional room on our school grounds and give relief to the crowded conditions. Although there are a number of the older pupils who cannot be forced by the delinquency law to attend school, who are not enrolled. We urge all patrons to allow nothing but sickness or death to keep your children out of school. This will cause them, the teachers and all interested never-ending pleasure and the pupils, some of whom do not realize the importance of an education, will, in after years, shower you with blessings to their last day.

Raymond Durham, son of Mr. J. J. Durham, and one of the brightest scholars of the 8th grade, fell from a wagon Friday and was quite seriously hurt. He will be missed from the school room greatly.

Miss Emily Butte, of Mississippi, who is visiting Dr. and Mrs. M. Lee Pipes, made our school a pleasant visit last week and made an interesting and helpful talk at chapel exercises. She has been teaching in the west for a number of years, and is a very refined and cultured lady.

The rural supervisor visited the school last week and found everything in splendid order. He was very much pleased with the Domestic Science display which Miss Peavyhouse has had prepared by her splendid class. He said that it should be shown at the Institute.

Col. James R. Nunneley, of Ft. Worth, Texas, renewing his I. J. for a couple of more years, writes these cheering words: "Guess you saw what we did to Colquitt and will do the same to Hughes this fall. King cotton is on top and everyone is feeling good in the old state. While the crop is short—15 to 16c and $40 to $50 for the seed, are making them all feel good and I look for big business this fall. Hope this will find everything moving smoothly in the old town and with best wishes to one and all, I am, your truly, J. R. Nunneley."

Capt. Vernon Richardson, secretary to Senator James, is receiving the congratulations of his host of Kentucky friends upon the arrival of a little son in his home at Washington, last week. The youngster has been named Gail Richardson. Both Mrs. Richardson, who was Miss Elise Browning, of Washington, and the youngster, are doing nicely.

Col. M. F. Elkin, formerly of Stanford, now in Lexington, State commander of the Maccabees, is just recovering from a peculiar accident, which he suffered nearly three weeks ago and which has kept him confined to his room for the greater part of the time. In dressing himself one morning, he accidentally struck the "crazy bone" of his right arm against a piece of furniture in the room. After the usual gymnastic gyrations that the average individual indulges in when his "crazy bone" receives a shock, the pain subsided and Colonel Elkin thought little of the occurrence, leaving that same day for inaction revealed the fact that the elbow joint was badly swollen. A physician was called and after treating him, advised him to return to his home in Lexington and carry the injured arm in a bandage until it healed. Colonel Elkin has been unable to use the injured member since and the pain he has suffered with it has kept him confined to his room since. No bones were broken, but the bruise sustained produced the swelling and has kept the arm painfully sore ever since.

Beckham Sees Victory

In Demand for Speeches All Over State—Wanted in West End

United States Senator J. C. W. Beckham returned to Kentucky from Washington last week, and will take an active part in the campaign to carry Kentucky by a big majority for Wilson and Marshall. There is a great demand for him from all over the state. A number of the democrats of the West End of this county said this week that he would be the most effective speaker who could be sent to speak there and they will make an effort to have the campaign committee send him to Hustonville. Senator Beckham is confident that President Wilson will be re-elected if every democrat does his duty. Speaking of the prospects he said: "I believe the president will be re-elected by a very large majority. The success of his administration has been remarkable and unprecedented, both in our foreign relations during the European war and the troubles in Mexico, and also as to our internal affairs. The president has at all times shown wisdom, patience and patriotism. He has not allowed himself to become panic-stricken by sentiment, or by the many provocations of the most irritating character, and he has won the deep gratitude of the American people in keeping this country at peace while the rest of the world was aflame with war. And, in addition to that, his administration, with the cooperation of the Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth congresses, has given to our people the most useful, far-reaching and constructive legislative reforms of any administration in half a century."

Hubble Mare Too Game

To Win in Big Roadster Ring—Billy Burton in the Money.

Bob Moreland, formerly of Stanford won the roadster championship at the state fair early last week with his great road horse Peter Valpa. The mare which Senator R. L. Hubble, of this city sold to McCray Brothers, of North Middletown, was an entrant, but so game that she would not stand when lined up by the judges and so failed to get a part of the money, though none of the entries had anything on her in the way of speed. The finish in the big stake which had $500 added and was for roadsters, stallion, mare or gelding, three-year-old or over, was as follows: Peter Valpa, R. E. Moreland, first; Miss Actwell, T. H. Ezell, second; Black Matt, R. W. Smart, third; Rosa D., W. G. Shropshire, fourth; Bleucher, Powhattan Stock Farm, fifth. Bleucher, which got fifth money, is the very handsome black stallion which W. B. Burton, of Lancaster has been standing each season and which is so popular in this section. Bleucher also took the blue for the best stallion, standard bred, and made a great show every time he was brought in to the ring.

Somebody give R. C. Oldham, Democratic member of the State Election Board, a sugar teat and let the little fellow go home to his mammy. Rod Keenon, chairman of the board, is just as good a democrat in every way as Oldham, and has been prominent in his party and deservedly enjoyed its entire confidence, long before Oldham ever got in front of the footlights where he could attract some attention with his babyish mouthings. No one who knows him believes for a minute that Keenon's going to do anything to hurt the democratic party, while Oldham with his baby act, seems to want to focus the attention of the party on himself rather than upon Woodrow Wilson and the harmonious sentiment which prevails in all elements of the party to roll up an overwhelming majority for him in Kentucky this fall.

A man named E. L. Moss, of Louisville, has sued H. M. Froman for $500 for services alleged to have been rendered when Froman ran against Mat Cohen for the Democratic nomination for Commissioner of Agriculture last year. Form the size of Froman's vote compared with Cohen's who snowed the aged gent under, Froman ought to sue Moss for failure to render services rather than vice versa.

David Lubin, founder of the International Institute of Agriculture and father of the Rural Credits movement, joined the list of Republicans openly espousing the re-election of President Wilson, others of the last few days being Thomas A. Edison, Luther Burbank and Henry Ford.

Well Now, Look at That! Off Comes That Pesky Corn as Slick as a Whistle.

The earth is blessed with the one, simple, painless, never-failing remedy that makes millions of corn-plagued people happy, and that's "GETS-IT." Apply it in 3 seconds. Nothing like this with "GETS-IT." Your corn loosens—you lift it off. There's nothing to press on the corn, or hurt. Anzels couldn't ask for more. Try it tonight on your corn, callus or wart. Men's Fine Shoes

Men are particular about their "Sunday Shoes;" they want them good; they want them comfortable, and they must be good lookers. Men are learning how to fit their feet so they will be comfortable. Manufacturers are constantly changing and improving lasts and styles, but of all the times since shoes were made, when it was necessary for a man to be onto his job to get the quality, it is during the high war prices of today. The Walk-Over Shoe people, one of the largest consumers of leather and acknowledged the most widely known shoe in the world today, are putting the same quality of leather in their shoes and the prices are still in the reach of all—$4, $4.50 and $5—the same quality as always; style and workmanship improved and price but little advanced. Our fall stock is here, the beautiful shades of dark tan, black calf and kid in any last from a young man's narrow English toe to the older man's wide Kentucky flat. Walk-Overs at $4, $4.50 and $5 have the other fellows beaten this time—let us show you.
